Tickets and booking arrangements vary from event to event. The information provided here is based on details presented direct from each venue and is subject to change.

Money Penny Murder Mystery Productions are aimed at small groups.

Most venues will sell individual tickets for events, however, you will often be grouped on to tables with other guests to make up tables of 6, 8, 10 or 12 depending on the venue's catering policy.

Our events often include the use of blank firing firearms such as revolvers and semi-automatic weapons. Guests should be aware that these are very loud and we take the utmost care in putting health and safety first. Young children, pregnant woman and those of a nervous disposition should make this know at the point of booking.

Money Penny Productions can be family affairs and contain no nudity and generally a level of language/swearing you might find on television between 7 and 9 o'clock in the evening.

Fancy dress is encouraged but not essential and each event is provided with an idea for costume.

If you are attending to celebrate a birthday, hen party, stag, etc. please make sure you inform the ticket office, banqueting manager or ourselves as we are able to pay "special" attention to certain guests if we know.

Money Penny Productions can be contacted at sales@moneypennyproduction.co.uk

Our events are aimed at people looking for something fun, fascinating and interactive...
